WHEREAS, The American newspaperboy is our nation's youngest businessman; and

WHEREAS, The newsboy must know his business even as the grocer or the banker or the druggist must manage his; and

WHEREAS, The American newspaperboy thereby acquires basic knowledge for good business procedures as well as the noteworthy qualities of thrift, promptness and honesty; and

WHEREAS, many South Dakota young people are gaining experiences through their paper routes which will be valuable to them in years to come which is proven by many successful adults who give partial credit to their newspaper experience; and

WHEREAS, The newsboy has traditionally delivered the news of the day regardless of weather conditions or other obstacles,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Sigurd Anderson, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of October 4-10, 1953 as in South Dakota. I urge all citizens to honor the newspaperboy and encourage them in their work and assist them in the development of character and integrity which will help them become worthwhile citizens of our state and nation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 1st day of October, 1953.
